

Exercise 1- Can you work out the original 4 headlines (5 items, each)?

	1	2	3	4
20mph zones
3- A council has been accused
after it implemented
and toughen up rules
as he told Europe
but faces years of legal challenges
despite opposition from residents.
for a new mega-embassy in London
for under-16s
2- Ministers will consult
of ignoring its own public consultation
on a possible social media ban
on mobile phones in schools.
over the decision.
1- President Trump refused
4- Sir Keir Starmer
to “focus on Ukraine”.
to rule out military action
to seize Greenland
will formally approve China’s plans

The Key :

1 from READING

President Trump refused to rule out military action to seize Greenland as he told Europe to “focus on Ukraine”.
 Ministers will consult on a possible social media ban for under-16s and toughen up rules on mobile phones in schools.

A council has been accused of ignoring its own public consultation after it implemented 20mph zones despite opposition from residents.

Sir Keir Starmer will formally approve China’s plans for a new mega-embassy in London but faces years of legal challenges over the decision.

..... 2 or from LISTENING (from an AI Voice Generator.)

Exercise 2 - The 4 headlines above have been submitted to an AI paraphaser, and then to an AI Voice Generator. What can you actually hear?

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4

This is what you actually heard

President Trump indicated military action for Greenland remains a possibility while urging Europe to prioritize Ukraine.

Ministers will deliberate on a potential prohibition of social media for individuals under 16 and will intensify regulations concerning mobile phone usage in educational institutions.

A council is criticized for disregarding public consultation by establishing 20mph zones against resident opposition.

Sir Keir Starmer plans to affirm the construction of China’s new mega-embassy in London, yet he expects enduring legal conflicts regarding this matter.